

History Department Research Seminar 2011

7-12-2011

Reminder: Marcus Collins Seminar, 7th December @ 4pm

Our next History Research Seminar will take place this Thursday, 7th December, starting 4-4.15pm, in Samuel Alexander A101. Our guest and paper title (slightly revised) will be:

Dr. Marcus Collins (Loughborough)

Permissiveness on Trial: Drugs, Popular Music and Politics in the Summer of Love

All welcome

1-12-2011

Paul Oldfield Talk - New Date

Dr. Paul Oldfield, whose talk had to be re-scheduled from last month, will now be presenting his paper to the History Research Seminar,

A Bridge to Salvation or Entrance to the Underworld? Medieval Southern Italy and International Pilgrimage on Tuesday 13th December at 4pm, in the Samuel Alexander Lecture Theatre.

All welcome.

22-11-2011

Reminder: Week 21-25 November Seminars

It is a veritable cornucopia of knowledge from the History Department this week, so here are the reminders for our scheduled events:

The People and the Car: Automobility and the Transformation of Urban Life in Britain, 1955-1965

Prof. Simon Gunn (Leicester)

Wednesday 23rd November, 4pm - Samuel Alexander A101

Supported by cities@manchester

Illiberal Cosmopolitans and the Early-twentieth Century University

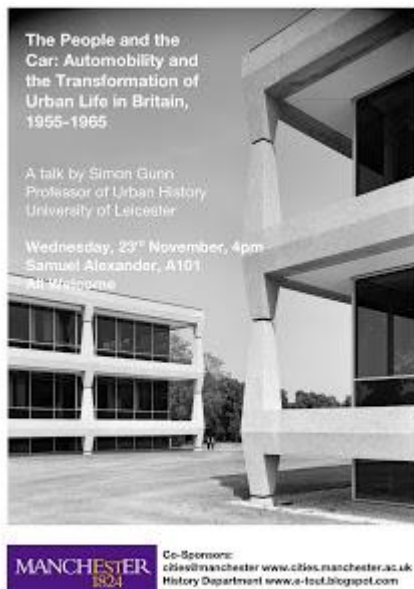

Dr. William O'Reilly (Cambridge)

Thursday 24th November, 4pm - Samuel Alexander A101

Supported by RICC

21-10-2011

Simon Gunn Talk: 23rd November @ 4pm

'The People and the Car: Automobility and the Transformation of Urban Life in Britain, 1955-1965'

A talk by Simon Gunn, Professor of Urban History, University of Leicester

Wednesday, 23rd November, 4pm

Samuel Alexander, A101

All Welcome

19-10-2011

Reminder: Guy Rowland's Talk - 20th October @ 4pm

Just a quick reminder that the next guest in our seminar series will be speaking tomorrow (Thursday) at 4pm, in Samuel Alexander A101

Guy Rowlands (St. Andrew's)

"The Last Argument of the King? Arms, Artillery and Absolutism in Louis XIV's France"

For the rest of our seminar schedule, see:

<http://www.arts.manchester.ac.uk/subjectareas/history/research/seminars/>

18-10-2011

Wednesday 16th November 2011 at 5.00p.m.(followed by refreshments)

University Place 5.212 (provisionally!)

David MATTHEWS (Manchester)

Ordaining the Nation: English Writing in (and around) 1311

Lisa COLTON (Huddersfield)

No Rude Attempt at Vocal Harmony: Sumer is icumen in and the Canon of English Music

Further inquiries: contact Andrew Jotischky (a.jotischky@lancaster.ac.uk) or

Stephen Mossman (stephen.mossman@manchester.ac.uk)

19-9-2011

Change to Prof. Clare Pettitt's Talk

Professor Clare Pettitt's talk, Travel in Print: Wonders, Miscellanies and Culture has been rescheduled to Wednesday 5th October, 4-4-15pm Room A113 Samuel Alexander. Apologies for any inconvenience.

14-9-2011

History Research Seminars, Semester 1, 2011/12

All Seminars 4pm unless otherwise stated. Samuel Alexander Building, Room A101.

6 October

Clare Pettitt (KCL), "Travel in Print: Wonders, Miscellanies and News Culture"

20 October

Guy Rowlands (St. Andrews), "The Last Argument of the King? Arms, Artillery and Absolutism in Louis XIV's France"

10 November

Paul Oldfield (MMU), "A Bridge to Salvation or Entrance to the Underworld?: Medieval Southern Italy and International Pilgrimage"

23rd November

Simon Gunn (Leicester), "The People and the Car: Automobility and the Transformation of Urban Life in Britain, 1955-1965"

24 November

William O'Reilly (Cambridge), "Illiberal Cosmopolitans and the early-twentieth century university"

8 December

Marcus Collins (Loughborough), "Permissiveness on Trial: Sex, Drugs, Rock and the Rolling Stones?"