

History Department Research Seminar Series, 2015-16, Semester 2 Programme

boche
Belocampz boche
es

All seminars in Mansfield Cooper, 3.22, Thursdays, 4.15pm.

All welcome! MA and Ph. D. students are particularly encouraged to attend.

4 Feb. 2016: Insa Nolte (Birmingham): 'Global religions, local elites: Christianity, Islam and Yoruba traditional rulers in southwest Nigeria, 1850 to the present'. World History.
Rearranged from 26 Nov.

11 Feb. 2016: Emily Mark-Fitzgerald (Dublin): The 'Unifying Force of a Scattered People'? Famine, Migration and Contemporary Irish Memory. Histories of Humanitarianism.

25 Feb: Liz Buettner (Amsterdam): 'Resurfacings: Comparing Memories of Empire in Postcolonial Europe'*

* Includes UK.

10 March: Craig Taylor (York): 'Chivalry and Biography: the Livre des fais of Jean II Le Meingre, Marshal Boucicaut (d. 1421)'. Medieval.

14 Apr: Alan Lester (Sussex): 'Settler Colonialism, George Grey and the Politics of Ethnography'. Histories of Humanitarianism.

28 Apr: Heather Jones (LSE): 'Honour, Kingship and the British Monarchy in the First World War'. Cultural History of Modern War.

12 May: Manon Pignot (Amiens): 'The impact of the Great War on French children : an intimate history of mobilization, family life and mourning.' Cultural History of Modern War.