

History Postgraduate Seminar

2016-17 Semester 1

28/09 Janek Gryta, The Thing

12/10 Stefan Lauper, The 'whole book' as an object: the so-called Briefbuch of the Commandery of the Order of St John zum Grünen Wörth in Strasbourg

Dale Copley, Researching Medieval Insult in a Historic Narrative

26/10 Tom Wroblewski, Translating Possession: The transmission of French demonic possession narratives to England

Alistair Dickens, Dual Power as Populist Discourse? Challenging Binary Definitions

9/11 Kat Fliegel, 'Not born, but made': maleness, masculinity, and the cross-gendered grave phenomenon in early Anglo-Saxon England

Jacob Bloomfield, Skirting the Censors: Cross-Dressing and Censorship on the 20th Century English Stage

23/11 Michael Smith, History of Emotions in Research Practice

Alex Jackson, The Regulation of Stadium & the Control of Football Crowds in Leningrad 1950-1984

7/12 Rachel Winchcombe, 'Ravenous, bloudye, and Man eating people': The Cannibalistic Amerindian in the Early English Colonial Imagination
Helen Kilburn, The emotional landscape of 17th century St Mary's City

14/12 Julia Maclachlan, Reading the Wolfenden Report in a Transnational Context

C1.18 Ellen Wilkinson Building
Wednesdays 5pm

All seminars followed by a drinks reception and a trip to the pub