

All seminars are on Thursdays, 4.15pm (room details listed next to each).

All welcome! MA and Ph. D. students are particularly encouraged to attend.

9 February - Rebecca Gill (University of Huddersfield) 'Democracy in the Nursery: Save the Children Fund and humanitarianism for the under-fives, 1930-1945.' (Histories of Humanitarianism)

23 February - Julian Stallabrass (The Courtauld Institute of Art) 'War and Photographic Speed.' (Cultural History of War)

9 March – Charles West (University of Sheffield) “A long and a dark tale” – Clerical Exemption before Becket.’ (Medieval)

23 March – Evelyn Welch (King’s College London) 'Smelling Men in Early Modern Europe.' (Embodied Emotions)

27 April – Judy Walkowitz (Johns Hopkins) 'The Spatial Politics of Reading in the Archives: A Memoir' (A Modern British History Network event)

4 May - Stefan Hanß (The University of Cambridge) Title TBC (Embodied Emotions)

All seminars take place at 4.15 pm on a Thursday, and all are held in University Place 6.210, apart from Julian Stallabrass on February 23 who will be in Mansfield Cooper G.21.

Enquiries contact: thomas.tunstalllallcock@manchester.ac.uk