

Lunchtime seminar: Wednesdays 1-1.50pm, Sam Alex A116

Semester 1

26 September – Ingrid Rembold: 'Widows, orphans and the church: protection and virtue signalling in the Carolingian world'

10 October – Rachel Winchcombe: 'Food provision and the formation of emotional relationships in early Virginia'

24 October – Gerardo Serra: 'The struggle for the soul of the Nkrumaist state: socialist political economy in 1960s Ghana'

14 November – Jo Laycock: 'Remedying displacement: public health, refugee relief, and Soviet power in Armenia, 1920-1928'

28 November – Ethan Menchinger: 'Ottoman dreams of destiny and omens of greatness'

Semester 2

30 January – Emily Jones: 'Democracy and 'revolution' in Conservative and Unionist political thought, c. 1880-1918'

13 February – Stefan Hanß: 'Feathers and hats in early modern Spain'

27 February – Francesca Young Kaufman: 'Politicised youth after 1989: contesting the legacy of May 4th in the PRC'

13 March – John Lee: 'Rethinking community forestry and sustainability in the early modern world: the Korean 'Pine Protection Association' in comparative perspective'

27 March – Edmond Smith: 'Between the Sahara and the Atlantic: Asante responses to global economic exchange, 1500-1650'

8 May – Clare Vernon: 'Visual culture in Norman Italy'

Next academic session (2019-20) we already have presentations lined up from Eloise Moss and Charlotte Wildman (a joint presentation), and Jesús Cháirez-Garza.

Peter Gatrell